

MARITIME SECURITY & COUNTER PIRACY CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

TRANSPORT SECURITY EXPO & CONFERENCE

Securing Passengers and Cargo Worldwide

Tuesday 13th September 2011

Conference sponsor

08.00 – 08.40 Coffee/Registration

08.40 – 08.45 Sponsor Welcome

Fredrik Cornell, Maritime & Logistics Security Solutions, Securitas Services Europe

08.45 – 09.00 Chairman's Welcome and Opening Remarks

Chris Trelawny, Deputy Director – Maritime Security and Facilitation, International Maritime Organisation (IMO)

The Future Of Maritime Security And Facilitation

09.00 – 09.30 Securing International Maritime Transportation – IMO Update

- ISPS Code 7 years on and new strategies for ensuring best practice and delivering greater resilience
- IMO activities to combat the growing range and rate of pirate attack
- The future focus for maritime security

Chris Trelawny, Deputy Director – Maritime Security and Facilitation, International Maritime Organisation (IMO)

09.30 – 10.00 Building A Stable And Secure Maritime Domain

- Assessing the latest global trends of threats to maritime security
- Balancing security with the free flow of people and commerce and protecting citizens and economies
- The experience of the EU in countering piracy – raising awareness and supporting operational actions
- The EU's role in applying regional security to the global maritime domain

Christian Dupont, Deputy Head of Unit – Maritime and Land Transport Security, Directorate General for Mobility and Transport, European Commission

10.00 – 10.30 Comprehensive Approaches To A Secure Maritime Environment

- Update on piracy and security threats to international shipping
- Implications from the expanded range of piracy operations in the Gulf of Aden, Arabian Sea and Indian Ocean
- Update on anti terrorism operation Active Endeavour in the Mediterranean – protecting merchant vessels against attacks by terrorists
- Importance of and benefits from information exchange between military and commercial shipping communities

Cdr SG Stein Olav Hagalid, Branch Head, NATO Shipping Centre

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee and Tea and Exhibition Visit

Combating Transnational Maritime Security Threats, Criminality And Piracy

11.00 – 11.25 Structuring A Successful Response To Maritime Security Threats

- Key maritime security challenges now and in the future
- Implications for security from emerging threats and vulnerabilities – practical considerations
- The importance of co-ordinated international efforts to enhance global maritime security

Captain Pottengal Mukundan, Director, International Maritime Bureau

11.25 – 11.50 Building A Sustainable And Robust Approach To Maritime Security

- The importance of overlaying a bottom-up approach (building on regional opportunities) with a sustainable, international top-down strategic policy on maritime security
- Looking at differing geo-political perspectives on delivering maritime security – under whose rules should maritime security be carried out?
- The role of current maritime security operations – for example, counter-piracy in the Horn of Africa, counter-terrorism in the Arabian Gulf and the Mediterranean, and counter-narcotics in the Caribbean – in providing a framework for building a wider understanding of maritime security challenges
- Achieving sustainable public and, in particular, political understanding of and will to support for maritime security operations

Dr Lee Willett, Head of Maritime Studies Programme, Royal United Services Institute for Defence and Security Studies (RUSI)

11.50 – 12.15 The Essential Role Of Law Enforcement In Maritime Security And Counter Piracy Operations

- Assessing the role of international criminal networks in piracy activities
- Update on Project Bada – targeting maritime piracy
- Collaboration between INTERPOL and Europol to fight criminal networks involved in maritime piracy

Pierre St. Hilaire, Assistant Director, Maritime Piracy Task Force, INTERPOL

12.15 – 12.40 PANEL DISCUSSION

- Should there be a European Maritime Security Strategy? And if so how could it best combat terrorism, criminality and piracy?
- Is enough being done to integrate maritime policy making, share information and provide a co-ordinated response to security challenges?

All speakers

12.40 – 14.00 Lunch and Exhibition Visit

Understanding And Countering Piracy

14.00 – 14.25 Understanding And Countering The Threat From Piracy

- Protecting sea lines of communication, commercial shipping and preventing random attacks at vulnerable choke points
- Enhancing vessel awareness – strategies to deter piracy
- Ensuring vessels, assets and personnel involved incur minimal damage
- What action to take if boarded and what support to expect from military forces
- To arm or not to arm – should protection remain passive or should armed guards be used – legal implications

LtCdr Rolf Halvard Hansen, Staff Support Officer, NATO Shipping Centre

14.25 – 14.50 Counter-Piracy Law Enforcement

- The complexities of counter-piracy law-enforcement
- International counter-piracy operations – providing support to law enforcement in East Africa
- The role of existing national and international legislation and the scope for enhancement
- Implications for human rights

Dr Douglas Guilfoyle, Faculty of Laws, University College London (UCL)

14.50 – 15.15 Piracy – Implications For Trade And Essential Counter Piracy Actions

- Implications for the oil trade from piracy in the Indian Ocean
- Importance of backing-up military action with political determination to address piracy
- Tackling the role and use of merchant vessels as piracy mother ships in counter piracy operations
- Enhancing existing national and international legislation to ensure the successful prosecution of piracy

Peter Kelly, Senior Marine Manager, INTERTANKO

15.15 – 15.40 Counter Piracy Capacity Building

- Addressing the piracy pandemic – implementing the Djibouti Code of Conduct
- Assessing the increasing reach and influence of piracy
- Importance of assisting regional states to develop lasting maritime security solutions
- Role of onshore governance and support in the disruption and suppression of piracy

Philip Holihead, Head of Counter-Piracy Project Implementation Unit, International Maritime Organisation (IMO)

15.40 – 16.00 Coffee and Tea and Exhibition Visit

Counter Piracy Strategies And Handling Piracy Situations

16.00 – 16.25 Countering Piracy – Beyond Self Defence And Military Action

- Assessing the impact of the rapid expansion of piracy attacks on global security
- Understanding the impact of large ransoms on piracy
- Combating the threat of the potential expansion of piracy globally
- Moving to combat piracy and other maritime crime by organised criminal groups and networks

Giles Noakes, Chief Maritime Security Officer, BIMCO

16.25 – 16.50 Anti-Piracy: Handling A Piracy Situation

- Under attack – what to expect in a piracy situation
- How to respond and key actions to ensure the safety of crew and vessels
- Preparations for release and what to expect post release
- Measures companies should have in place to prepare for a piracy situation

Bent Nielsen, Director – Marine Standards, Maersk Tankers

Securing Facilities And The International Supply Chain

16.50 – 17.15 Securing Ship And Port Facilities – Implementation Of The ISPS Code At The Suez Canal Container Terminal

- Maximising strengths of SCTT location and characteristics
- Linking the terminal's main objectives to the effectiveness of the security organisation
- Reviewing ISPS compliance at the Suez Canal Container Terminal (SCTT)
- Future planning to improve terminal services and security

Kamel Girgis, Security Manager (PFSO), Suez Canal Container Terminal

17.15 – 17.40 Securing The International Supply Chain

- The WCO SAFE Policy
- The role of Authorised Economic Operator amongst counter terrorism initiatives and the fight against organised crime and other public safety threats to society
- What government and the private sector can do to secure the future of the supply chain

Jane Sewell, ITDLO Team, HM Revenue & Customs

17.40 Chairman's Closing Remarks & Conference Close

SAVE £100.00 – Early Bird Rates available for bookings made by the 22nd July

Register today at www.transec.com/brc 13-14 September 2011 | Olympia, London

